STILL UNEXPLAINED.

The doctors of the state, according to telegraph report of the Peoria convention, spent much time in discussion of the influenza epidemic. However, the public is still in doubt as to the probable cause of the epidemic and also the best method for combating the disease. There were certain general symptoms which were common to all localities but there were also individual local characteristics that made the whole subject continue baffling.

INQUIRY SENSATION

FLATTENS OUT.
The special inquiry as to whether members of the board of equalization were "approached" about the assessment of the Pullman Co., seems to have about run its course. The men who made the charges which by inference involved Gov. Lowden were probably not expecting such prompt action on the part of the governor, who sent a special message to the assembly suggesting immediate inquiry. There has not been a single bit of evidence to substantiate the story that any representative of the Pullman Co. made complaint or asked for special favors. The turn of the inquiry has strengthened the governor's position and increased the chances of the passage of the tax commission bill which would abolish the board of equalization and place most of its power in the hands of a special tax board.

PUSHING SUFFRAGE THRU

The quick action of congress on equal suffrage indicates the desire to precede President Wilson's recommendation. The proposed law had been introduced and practically approved before the president's message was read, this bit of maneuvering having been done by Representative Mann. One can't blame the Republican congress for wanting to take whatever glory there may be in suffrage legislation, for President Wilson's advocacy in the past has not been of the most aggressive and earnest kind.

NO PROMISES TO THE CHICKEN HEARTED

The Alaska publicity department issues bulletins regularly setting forth the advantages of that far-away territory. The publicity matter is not as alluring as that which used to "come out of the west." Alaska is advertised as a country of mighty possibilities, but young men are charged: "If you are not subject to cold feet, if you are not afraid to take a chance, come to Alaska. It is America's last frontier. Are you game to take a chance on it? Don't come expecting to find gold nuggets growing on trees or full larders without exertion. But there are boundless opportunities."

RAISING BIG MONEY QUICK.

They certainly do things in Decatur, especially when there is business in prospect. At the discussion about the building of a dam and reservoir at a cost estimated all the way from $700,000 to $1,500,000 has come to an end. The authorities have decided to build the dam and will levy a public benefit tax to secure funds not available in other ways. The glucose factory was unwilling to authorize the issuance of bonds for $2,000,000 of betterments unless an increased water supply was assured. It didn't take the Decatur men long to decide on the best course.

THE BEER AND WINE RESPIRE.

After all, President Wilson should be accorded a certain amount of sympathy for the bearing he is receiving for advocating the removal of the ban on beer and wine until prohibition takes effect. The act requiring manufacture of beer and wine to cease July 1 was a war time measure, with a war time purpose. To put it into effect now savors somewhat of the action of taking over the telegraph and cable lines for war purposes after the armistice had been signed. This statement is not inspired by wet sympathy but it is just as well to be fair-minded in every kind of a contest.

France thoroughly approves the League of Nations plan but in her perilous position just across from the German empire it is not surprising that she would like an agreement on the side with England and the U. S.

THE LOCAL HARMONY SPIRIT.

Judge Jones told lawyers last night that he knew of no other city where the members of the bar worked with such harmony as here. The judge congratulated the attorneys on their annual banquet and their method also of holding other meetings for conference. Evidently the judge is just finding out about the new get-together spirit in Jacksonville, which fortunately seems to be taking a firm hold on citizens in professional, business and industrial life.

Julius Rosenwald is one of the "eminent" authorities who says that no early reductions in the price of necessities need be expected. This statement will be a relief to many. People have quit looking toward lower prices and instead are energetically praying that there may be no further advances.

MUST SUE IRVIN COBB.

When Irvin Cobb next speaks from a platform in Morgan county somebody will serve him with a summons to answer for a damage suit. In a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post he relates his experiences on a twelve-week chaletauqua tour and makes humorous—if not especially complimentary—reference to the day he spent here. It will be remembered that the temperature stood at about 100 in the shade and in the midst of the address that a cloudburst nearly put the tent out of business.

The damage suit should really be against the artist who illustrated the Cobb story for he has pictured the humorist on the Morgan county plateau surrounded by grinning auditors of the chin whiskered, hayseed type and in various other ways, maligns our local dignity and literacy.

BEWARE OF THE BOLSHIEVIK WHO CALLS YOU "KAMERAD"

The Unionist of Chicago, in a lengthy statement to wage earners throughout the country warns of the "bolshievik." The statement reads in part:

"A Bolshievik by any other name smells just as bad. He may confess a modest leaning to what he terms 'Socialism' and he may speak in any of the 800 languages and dialects in use in the United States, but he will eventually disclose the cloven hoof and point to a millennium which aims at the destruction of property, the abolition of government and the wiping out of the family relation. And that he holds to be the ultimate desirable.

"He is a menace to the peace and prosperity of this country when he dissembles his real aims. We are not alarmed at that sort of Bolshievism which carries on its whole propaganda through literature. The danger is in the fellow who, by reason of being your fellow workman, is entitled to call you 'kamerad'—though the chances are that he will patronize it in one of the many renderings of 'Kamerad.'"

"And there must be no compromise made with the doctrines of the apostles of the expurgated Bolshievism. Bolshievism in any form is a thing to be abhorred, but when put forth in the pleasing form in which it is presented by the more cunning of its exponents in America, it is liable to be tolerated by men who do not wish the words of seducers. But the soul of the man who preaches the red flag is as filthy as the body of the man whose whose appetite for revolution was whetted by the promises of unbridled license, with many threats to cut, throat to rob and women to possess."

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

Private Grief.
I cannot weep for others' woes or sympathize with those who wall; I have no shoes that hurt my toes, and outside griefs seem heap and stale. The hungry Huns are needing bread; I do not shirk them when they call; I shriek and groan at every tread—I have new shoes which are too small. You point to Kaiser Bill and say, "There is the man who cornered grief; he's whacking sawlogs by the day who once was Prussia's haughty chief! He has some reason for the blues, this outcast whom the whole world scorns; but he is wearing large loose shoes, which do not chafe his kindly corns. How bravely I might stand the gaff, if I were there, in Bill's retreat! I'd lose a crown and throne and laugh, if I had shoes that fit my feet. They tell sad tales of Europe wrecked, of cities razed by vandal blows; these tales would move me, I expect, if I could but forget my toes. No tales can longer or amuse, I see no point in aught you tell, there's nothing counts but feet and shoes, in this sad world wherein we dwell. I can't admire the dewey rose, or hear with joy the nightingale, for I have shoes which hurt my toes—all other things seem flat and stale."

MEMORIAL SERVICES TO BE HELD IN WHITE HALL

Culver G. A. R. Post Will Hold Services Sunday—White Hall
 News Notes.

White Hall, May 22.—The annual memorial sermon under the auspices of Culver G. A. R. post will be delivered in the M. E. church next Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. Leo Howard.

Attorney and Mrs. Grant Foreman left Wednesday on their return to Muskogee, Oklahoma, after a visit at the home of the former's father, Dr. A. W. Foreman.

The continued wet and cool weather is discouraging small grain crops. A yellowness has appeared in patches of wheat in this section, and it is being attributed to the effects of freezing weather on wheat planted in wet and exhausted soil.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilkinson were up from Jerseyville Thursday.

Dr. R. A. Hamilton and wife attended the funeral of the former's sister, Miss Clara Hamilton in Jerseyville this week.

A grand daughter of Fitz Shipman was interred in the White Hall cemetery Wednesday. The little girl died at the home at Grainfield Kansas, and the remains were brought here Tuesday night, accompanied by the parents and grand parents.

Oppose Censorship Bill.

Carl Lowenstein, manager of the Princess Theatre, attended the hearing on the movie censorship bill before Chairman Dietrich in the main room of the house in Springfield Tuesday. Managers Luitrell of Jacksonville, and Hensler of Carrollton, were others present from this section. The bill is the most drastic yet proposed in Illinois and probably in any other state. Its provisions would not permit without due censorship the presentation of any film or slide no matter of what character. It is so drastic as to appear ridiculous, and its enactment into law would soon result in its own death as at present framed. No advertising slide or announcement of any kind would be possible without due censorship. The theatres over the state have likely been as loyal and generous as the one at White Hall in the matter of free meetings during the war, and also in the matter of running slides in aid of government and private war enterprises. The picture interests take the view that there is no force as great as public sentiment for encouraging the good and exterminating the evil in motion pictures, and that there is no more demand for censorship for pictures than for sermons or editorials, which would be in violation of the constitutional guaranty of free speech and free press. Dr. Sam Atkinson of Chicago, in the course of his address to the committee, said: "Now we have to enter the political arena ourselves. We have never used the screen for political purposes; we never would have contemplated using it had it not been that we are driven to it by our enemies. Now is the time, when we have decided to go into politics. We are going to use the screen of the state of Illinois to educate our people and to fight the men who are seeking to dominate us. We are going to take political action from this time on, and it is necessary that we reach every part of the State that every senatorial district be organized, that every representative and every senator be reached, that the people themselves be educated—they are the last determining factor, not us, they have the right to determine what they will see and what they will not see."

There has been some talk in our city the past week about savin' babies. I don't know whether its by the sky pilot or castoria route, but any how, I am in for it, for, by heck, some of these days them kids will have a gasoline go cart and I want em to buy tires en every thing from Skinner, 211 S. I knew a feller that owned ten and he said he wouldnt take a million dollars for one of them, but he wouldnt give a dime for another one. No Sir, says he, ten is an excellent suffiancy, any more would be supurfulous.

But say, Bill, if you want to learn all about the raisin and takin care of babies you want to have a listen to a lecture by some old maid with a high brow, that's gone to college, they know all about it, but their talk is usually based on theory. You see, experience in this case is a fine teacher, and a dern hard job to boot. ### MEETING TODAY

MAY END STRIKE

WINNIPEG, Man., May 22.—Open discussion of the general strike in Winnipeg by representatives of all leading forces involved in the situation will take place at a meeting in the city hall at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow forenoon. It was officially announced late today that it was hoped the meeting would lead to settlement of the industrial dispute.

It was decided to hold the meeting in the interest of general public welfare. Labor representatives, federal, provincial and municipal officials and Winnipeg industrial and commercial employers were not formally requested by city officials to attend, but were told that the conference will be a "get-together" gathering where various views can be submitted and conciliation considered.

Telephone service was restored by volunteer operators this afternoon.

TROOPS OF 33RD LEAVE CAMP MILLS

CAMP MILLS, N. Y., May 22.—Trains carrying 1,426 troops of the Thirty-third Division (former National Guard of Illinois) left here today to be demobilized at Camp Lee, Meade, Dix, Dodge, Merritt, Upton, Pike, Bowie, Shelby, Custer, Gordon, Taylor, and Sherman and Forts D. A. Russell and Oglethorpe. The majority, 1,311 officers and men are of the 132nd Infantry and other units are the division's rail head, 108th mobile repair shop and 122nd and 124th machine gun battalions.

ALLIES REPLY TO NOTE ON PRISONERS

PARIS, May 22.—In reply to the German peace delegation's note regarding prisoners of war, the allied and associated powers declared "they cannot agree that prisoners of war and civilian prisoners who have been guilty of crimes or penal offenses should be released."

"These crimes and penal offenses have been committed on allied soil and have been dealt with by the legally constituted authorities without reference to the fact that the wrongdoer was a German, rather than an allied citizen."

The reply assures the Germans that the prisoners will be treated with "full consideration of their feelings and needs" during the period between the signing of peace and the prisoners' repatriation.

The German delegates also were informed that personal property of prisoners would be restored and that the allied and associated powers would "endeavor to supply the German government with all information in their possession" regarding the missing.

In answer to the German request for "complete reciprocity," the reply says "as there was no parallel between the treatment accorded the prisoners of war by the German government on the one side and the allied and associated governments on the other no claim for reciprocity can arise."

The allied and associated powers said they were ready to do every thing possible to repatriate German prisoners of war and interned civilians properly fed and in good condition after the conclusion of peace.

CONSIDER COVENANT MORE PRACTICAL

PARIS, May 22.—[By The Associated Press.]—The allied reply to the German note regarding the league of nations, which was delivered today, says in general that the council considers that "the proposals for the covenant are much more practical than those of the German government and better calculated to secure the objects of the league."

Regarding the suggestion of a separate mediation office this is not considered feasible since such a body would not have the requisite authority to maintain the peace of the world.

ALLIES REJECT HUN ECONOMIC NOTE

PARIS, May 22.—[By The Associated Press.]—The allied reply to the German note on the economic effect on the peace terms, was sent by the allied council to the German delegation today. The reply characterizes the German note as exaggerated and says that it indicates failure to appreciate the enormity of the Germans' responsibility.

The Germans are reminded that "it is right that Germany, which was responsible for the origin of these calamities should make them good to the utmost of her capacity."

TURK AND BULGAR ENVOYS AWAIT CALL

GENEVA, Wednesday, May 21.—Turkish and Bulgarian delegates to the peace congress have arrived in Switzerland. They brought with them many documents and both delegations plan to make protests.

The Turks, it is said, will protest against the partition of Turkey, especially concerning Constantinople. The Bulgarians will put in a claim for the return of the Dobrudja and the port of Constanza. The delegations expect to be in Paris by the end of May.

WANTS ALIENS IN RUSS BUREAU DEPORTE

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Senator King, Democrat of Utah, announced today that upon convening of the senate tomorrow he would introduce a resolution calling on the department of labor to deport L. C. A. K. Martens and other aliens connected with the Russian soviet bureau in New York. The senator declared the bureau was maintained with funds furnished by the Russian bolsheviks and that its purpose was to promote bolshevik propaganda in the United States.

BELIEVE VENDETTA RESULTED IN KILLING

CHICAGO, May 22.—A vendetta is believed by the police to have resulted in the killing of two Italians who were found shot to death in a prairie on the south side. One of the victims wore an army shirt and sweater and had an open knife in his pocket, the other had a small sum of money in his pocket. The police believe the men were lured to the abandoned spot by enemies and shot to death. Trampled grass and a number of discharged revolver cartridges showed there had been a hard struggle.

WILL TAKE UP RETURN OF ROADS

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Senator Cummins of Iowa, prospective chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee, announced today the committee would begin consideration of legislation for the return of the railroads to private control as soon as it has been re-organized. Numerous conferences among Republican senators for exchange of views on the railroad question already have been held.

The Iowa senator said the committee would give early consideration to legislation for the return of the telephone and telegraph systems.

SAYS ITALIANS LET 8,000 PRISONERS ESCAPE

SALONIKI, Tuesday, May 20.—The military governor of Saloniki has made a statement to the Athens agency that the Italian troops who were guarding Bulgarian prisoners in Macedonia and Bulgaria have permitted 8,000 of the 9,000 Bulgarians in their charge to escape.

In commenting on this report the Journal des Balkans urges that all Italian troops should be removed from Bulgarian territory. It says that there is no reason for the Italians to remain there and that their presence only causes friction which may lead to troublesome events.

HUN PLAN CONTAINS SIXTY-FIVE CLAUSES

PARIS, May 22.—(Reuter)—The German league of nations plan contains sixty-five clauses. It agrees in general with the conference covenant, but proposes a number of amendments, including compulsory arbitration and also an international parliament, both of which heretofore have been pronounced impracticable by the league of nations commission.

The allied reply has been drafted but not yet forwarded. It points out the general coincidence of the German plan with the covenant and the impracticable character of the innovations.

ALLIES ADDRESS QUESTION TO SWISS

BERLIN, May 22.—(By The Associated Press.)—It is confirmed that the allied and associated governments have addressed a question to the Swiss government as to whether it would be willing and ready to take measures for a severer blockade against Germany should circumstances require it. It is believed here that this step is preparatory to action, should Germany refuse to sign the treaty. The publication of the question has made a painful impression in Switzerland and is commented upon widely in the press as an infringement of the right and independence of small countries.

TEST FOUNTAINS FOR PEACE DISPLAY

Versailles, May 22.—(By The Associated Press.)—The great fountains at Versailles were turned on this morning for a test preliminary to the grand display planned for the day the peace treaty is signed. They functioned perfectly notwithstanding that they had not been used since the war began. Members of the German peace delegation were interested spectators, the display being visible from the windows of their hotels.

URGES RATIFICATION WITHOUT DELAY

Washington, May 22.—Ratification of the peace treaty without delay when it is presented to the senate was urged today by Senator Pittman, Democrat, of Nevada who said amendment of the covenant of the league of nations would mean rejection of the whole treaty and the proposal of a new one.

NAME SCHOOL FOR OFFICER

Washington, May 22.—The army school at Arcadia, Cal., has been designated "Ross field," for Lieut. Cleo J. Ross, killed in France.

LAWYERS HELD ANNUAL BANQUET

Judge Jones and Others Talked of Proposed Amendment to Practice Act—Bar Association Officers Elected.

The annual banquet of the Morgan County Bar Association was held at Colonial Inn Thursday night. The service was in every way faultless and members of the company declared the menu excellent. A number of brief talks were made with reference to the proposed amendment to the practice act of Illinois. The state bar association is advocating the passage of the proposed amendments. After the discussion last night the association here went on record as opposed to the bill in its present form. The lawyers here believe there are a number of good points in the law but unless changes are made that the statute will not be beneficial.

Judge Owen P. Thompson, who was elected president of the association, spoke briefly, as did W. T. Wilson, Walter Bellatti, Judge W. E. Thompson and Elmer E. Haigrove of Kansas City. Afterward Judge Norman Jones made a more extended talk on the same subject, indicating that he had given the proposed practice act thorough study. The general purpose of the amendment is to provide for the code pleading of cases and thus to do away with technicalities. Judge Jones in a very clear and fair-minded way pointed out advantages in the bill but certain things that he accounted as defects unless changed before being passed by the general assembly.

The majority of the lawyers present accorded with the views expressed by Judge Jones and the attitude of the bar was as recorded above. The election of officers resulted in the choice of the following:

President—Judge Owen P. Thompson.
Vice president—William T. Wilson.

Secretary—Henry English.
Treasurer—Walter W. Wright.
Miss Tillie Haigrove was elected to membership in the association. Judge Jones in beginning his remarks took occasion to compliment the members of the bar on their annual banquet plan and said he did not know of another county where the members of the bar work with such apparent harmony and general good feeling. Thomas Worthington will represent the association at the meeting of the state bar association in Decatur next week.

The arrangements for the banquet this year were made by a committee including Judge E. P. Brockhouse, John M. Butler and Hugh Green.

EX-EMPEROR CHARLES IN NYON, SWITZERLAND

GENEVA, Wednesday, May 21.—Ex-emperor Charles and ex-empress Zita, accompanied by several Austrian arch dukes, a numerous suite and a mountain of baggage arrived last evening at Nyon, on the western side of Lake Geneva from St. Gaud. The former Austrian royal pair were hissed by the crowd as they alighted from the ordinary train in which they had travelled and took automobiles for the Chateau Pranzias, near Geneva, their future home which was once the residence of Prince Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte. The ex-emperor appeared ill and depressed while the ex-empress wore a gay air and was attired in a gown of the latest Parisian mode.

Swiss gendarmes will temporarily guard the chateau.

ASKS BOUNDARIES BE NOT CHANGED

THE HAGUE, May 22.—Jonker van Karnebeck, the Dutch foreign minister in a statement here today on the subject of the conference in Paris regarding the revision of the treaty of 1839, said he declared that Holland was ready to be a party to the revision under a strict reservation that no attempt would be made to alter the territorial status quo which was founded on historic rights and in keeping with the wishes of the population.

FORESTS FIRES BURNING

Ely, Minn., May 22.—Forest fires are burning in remote sections 12 or 14 and some 30 miles from here mostly to the south, but immediate danger to settlers is not feared. The forest reserves are continually fighting the fires and seem to have the situation fairly well in hand.

WOULD CHANGE TAX MINIMUM

Washington, May 22.—Comfort for the small salaried man is provided in a bill introduced in congress today by Representative Sabath, Democrat, of Illinois, for revision of the income tax section of the war revenue act. It provides that a single man's personal exemption be fixed at $2,000, or double the amount stipulated under the present law, while a married man, living with and supporting his wife, would be entitled to an exemption of $4,000 instead of half that sum.

240 HOMES BURNED

Mobile, Ala., May 22.—A corrected estimate of the damage done by yesterday's fire here shows that a total of 240 homes were burned and that 1,050 people were without homes. The homeless are cared for at public halls and in tents. The loss is estimated at $800,000.

DECATUR PLEDGES BIG SUM FOR WATER

Look Prompt Action In Order to Clinch Bond Issue For Enlargement By Glucose Company.

Mention has been made at various times about the reservoir and dam project in Decatur. Two locations have been under consideration, with estimates on construction cost varying from $700,000 to $1,500,000. Special interest centered in the discussion because of the promise of the glucose company to immediately spend $2,000,000 or more in betterments if assured of a large and certain water supply. After canvassing the situation the city council found that the cost of the reservoir would far exceed the funds immediately available.

Under the stress of doing something quickly the council with the advice of a special citizens' committee decided to levy a general improvement tax by which it was proposed thru a series of years to provide the additional fund necessary. Mr. Staley, representing the glucose company, delayed the action of the directors of the bond issue until a definite agreement was made on the reservoir project.

The glucose company bonds authorized have already been sold and now because of the assurance given on the water supply, Decatur is to have this big plant enlarged in such a way that it will give employment to a far greater number of people and in other ways add to the volume of Decatur's business. The action taken in Decatur possibly contains a suggestion for Jacksonville, for for additional funds are necessary to install a filtration plant.

The case of John Anderson against Fletcher Hopper and Harry Hofmann is on trial in the circuit court. The complainants are represented by Bellatti Bellatti & Moriarty and the defendants by J. O. Priest, W. N. Hairgrove and Elmer Hairgrove.

In this case the complainant is seeking to recover for rent he claims is due him on the opera house building which Messrs. Hopper & Hofmann had under lease, and that the sum of $3,000 is due for unpaid rental. The former lessees declare that they were compelled to vacate the building because it was in dangerous condition and not a safe place for the assembly of an audience. According to their statement the roof was in such condition that part of the plastering had fallen off and there was a likelihood of other plastering falling and doing injury to any persons who happened to be in the building.

BACK FROM FEDERATED CLUBS MEETING

Morgan County Delegates Return From Birmingham Meeting—Mrs. J. Parker Doan to Represent County.

Morgan county women who were delegates to the 19th annual meeting of the Federation of Woman's Clubs for the twentieth congressional district held at Beardstown returned Thursday afternoon. The sessions were held at First Congregational church. Although the weather was so unfavorable, this fact did not interfere with the attendance and the list of delegates from the various cities and clubs was complete. Altogether it was accounted as one of the strongest conventions that the federated clubs have held.

At the business session Thursday morning Mrs. Joseph Grout of Winchester was elected president and the retiring president, Mrs. Edgar D. Glandon of Pittsfield automatically becomes the vice president at large. In preparation for the convention next year Mrs. E. D. Beird of Bluffs was named recording secretary and Miss Louise Frost of Winchester corresponding secretary and treasurer. A vice president was chosen from each county and Mrs. J. Parker Doan is the representative from Morgan county.

The delegates felt especially fortunate in having with them Miss Jessie Spafford, president Illinois Federation of Woman's clubs, and Miss Spafford was heard with very great interest at both the sessions Wednesday afternoon and again Thursday morning. The address Wednesday night was by Prof. Andrew McLaughlin of Chicago. His theme was "The League of Nations." This was of course a very formidable subject but Prof. McLaughlin presented a great deal of valuable information and at the same time presented a great deal of human interest matter. The convention was in every way successful.

SPECIAL PAPER ISSUED FOR TROOPS

Copy of Bulletin Issued at Le Mans Gives Clear Idea of Big Embarkation Center.

Miss Ella King Morrison of Wayne, Neb., a niece of Mrs. Ensley Moore, and daughter of a family resident here in earlier years, has for some time been engaged in canteen work in France and is now stationed at Le Mans. Miss Margaret Moore, her cousin, and still another cousin resident in Peoria are also in canteen service overseas.

Recently Miss Morrison sent to Mr. and Mrs. Ensley Moore a copy of the souvenir edition of The Bulletin, published at the American embarkation center at Le Mans. This edition is a newspaper of eight pages, issued by the American Red Cross and presents a large amount of reading matter descriptive of the work being done at the center, together with a great deal of valuable information.

On the front page is a halftone picture of headquarters office followed with some photographs of commemorative from C. W. Read, major general commanding the embarkation center. The general in addressing soldiers about to return to the U. S. expressed appreciation for their services but gave them the timely advice "Be proud always of your service in the A. E. F., but be not too vain of your wound chevrons and decorations, if you have them. Many a modest soldier in the S. O. S. would have given much for a place in the front lines. Be proud of the A. E. F. as a whole and do not criticize any of its parts. There is glory enough for all."

The paper is profusely illustrated with very readable subject matter and affords another illustration of the American idea its main purpose no doubt is to provide interesting reading matter for the soldiers at the center about to return home, and to impress the many worth while lessons of the war in its editorial columns. The Bulletin under the heading, "Accomplishments of the Y" gives unstinted praise to the organization for what its members have done for the soldiers, concluding with the words "And her work has not been in vain, for she is reaping the harvest of conscientious effort."

FRANKLIN MAN SUFFERS FRACTURE OF LEG

Dennis Whalen is Trampled by Horse at Davis Sale—Brought to Our Savior's Hospital.

Dennis Whalen, a well known resident of Franklin, is at Our Savior's hospital suffering from a fracture of the right leg just above the ankle as the result of being trampled by a horse at the Davis sale Thursday.

Whalen was in the crowd in the barn where the horses were brought in to be shown for sale. Several of the animals had never been broken to halter. One became unmanageable and broke away from its attendant and plunged into the crowd. Several persons were knocked down but all escaped injury except Mr. Whalen. The horse struck him on the ankle with great force.

R. E. Harmon, who was at the sale, gave Mr. Whalen first aid and found the bone was badly fractured and advised that he be taken to the hospital for attention. He was brought to Our Savior's hospital where he was attended by Dr. Metcalf of Franklin. It was found that the bone was badly splintered. Mr. Whalen was resting fairly well last night but it will be several weeks before he will be able to get around again.

MORGAN COUNTY BOYS ARRIVE AT HOME PORT

Local Men in 33rd Division Make Port in New York—Are Met by Many Illinois Citizens.

A telegram came to the Journal Thursday evening from Capt. L. P. Owen who is one of the committee appointed by Governor Lowden to meet the Illinois soldiers who are returning home. Capt. Owen said the boys arrived in good condition, well and happy.

J. W. Chipchase received a message from Carl Weber Thursday evening announcing his arrival in New York City at 7 o'clock Thursday morning. Mr. Weber said he was being sent Camp Merritt and later would be sent to some cantonment nearer home for final discharge. Evidently the arrival of Mr. Weber will be a surprise as his father said last Saturday that he was at an embarkation port but did not know when he would sail for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Stewart also received a message from their son Corporal Allen M. Stewart telling of his arrival in New York City. He will go to Camp Mills. Corporal Stewart has been with the military police of the 33rd division.

CONCERT AT STATE STREET CHURCH

The concert to be given this evening by the Illinois College Chorus and the Conservatory Orchestra in State Street church offers an interesting program. The first part will be taken up with pieces played by the orchestra, under Mr. Kitch's direction and a group of songs sung by Charles H. Keep, tenor, who next fall is to take the place left vacant in the Conservatory by Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson. The orchestra plays two famous overtures, that to Mozart's opera "The Marriage of Figaro" and the more modern one to Humperdink's fairy opera "Haensel and Gretel." Of particular interest will be the two pieces composed by Mr. Kitch's pupil, Mr. Frederick G. Meyers, a Gavotte and a Romance arranged by him for string orchestra. Mr. Keep will sing four songs, accompanied by Miss Ruth Duncan.

The second part of the program will be occupied by Coleridge Taylor's cantata "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," composed for tenor solo, mixed chorus and orchestra, with words by Longfellow. This cantata is the first of three similar ones, all with text from Longfellow's famous poem "The Song of Hiawatha," and the tenor solo, one of Coleridge Taylor's choicest compositions will be sung by Mr. Keep. Most of the work is sung by the chorus and the music, while somewhat oriental in coloring, is yet entirely occidental in its orchestration and its flow of melody. The accompaniment will be played by Miss Ruth Duncan and a selected orchestra.

The proceeds of this concert will be devoted to the Marcus Kellerman Scholarship Fund, started years ago by Mr. Kellerman.

A DREARY WEEK.
J. Pluvius has been very unpropitious to our vicinity four days this week. Much of the time, both day and night, rain has fallen while overcoats and fires in the furnace or stoves have been needed. Much corn has been planted and some yet remains to be put in the ground and it is wholly possible that the grain planted yet will do as well as that which was put in some days ago. Two years ago we had some late cold weather calling for fires in June but that was exceptional just as the present conditions are.

CHURCH ADDITION IS PROPOSED

Congregationalists May Make Extensive Alterations at Church Plant.

For some time past it has been evident that the people of the Congregational church needed much better facilities for general work than are now possessed and with that fact in view a special committee was appointed to secure suitable plans from a professional architect which was done. The plans contemplate a large assembly room which may be used for a variety of purposes, a stage at one side of it, a library room for the ever increasing collection of books due to the legacy of Miss Alice Rhoades, sixteen class rooms and various other improvements.

A meeting was held last week to examine the plans which have been here for some time and last evening at an adjourned meeting the plans were adopted. The anticipated cost including a steam heating plant and renovation of the present audience room, is about $32,000. Steps were taken at the meeting last night to secure this amount and the canvass will begin at once.

From County Agents Office

Employment for Returning Soldiers and Sailors.—The U. S. department of labor has established an office at 10 West Adams street, Chicago, Ill., for the purpose of aiding returned soldiers and sailors in securing employment. Many of these want to work on farms. J. F. Mason, of Elgin, well known to the farmers of Illinois, is in charge of this office. If any of our Morgan county farmers want to try one of these men, this office will try to get one of them for you.

The Wool Market.—Jacksonville has been a very good wool market in time past and will compare favorably with any of the cities of the country in this respect. A move to pool the clips of small growers is not necessary, a reflection on local buyers but is a part of a move on the part of farmers to put the farming business on a plane with other organized business. Heretofore, the farmer has had to pay the price fixed by some one else for what he buys and to take a price fixed by some one else for what he had to sell. The Illinois Agricultural Association is building a selling machine that will enable wool growers to name a price on their products in the same way any other business does.

Is Morgan county rated right? The report of the Illinois Farmers' Institute for 1917 has reached this office. A table in the back part shows the rating of 24 leading Illinois counties ranked according to their importance in various lines of agricultural production. Morgan is 21 in corn, 14 in wheat, and not in the list in oats, barley, rye, or hay. We are not mentioned amongst the first twenty-four counties in either horses, beef cattle, dairy cows, hogs, or sheep.

These figures were collected by the state department of Agriculture. Is this rating correct? Are we that far in the rear? Such things ought not so to be.

The Milk Situation.—This is not at all encouraging to either producers or consumers. Prices are apparently high from the consumers standpoint there ducer or consumer. Although are some conditions that are not very favorable to the producer. One of our largest concerns has curtailed the buying of milk for a starter due to the adoption of a chemical product for the same purpose. Ice cream manufacturers are said to have quit buying cream, but are using butter and a milk powder in the manufacture of ice cream. These statements are not made as a criticism upon the changes in business practice, but are given to show that the path of the local milk producer is not strewn with roses. Its either up to him to sell cream only, seek a new market for whole milk, change to beef cattle, or quit handling cattle. At present, four well known milk producers have declared their intention of reducing their herds.

DOCTOR'S PATIENT GAINS 17 POUNDS

Prominent Physician Continues to Use Tanlac in Practice with Surprising Results.

One of the strongest and most convincing evidences of the remarkable results being accomplished by Tanlac throughout the country is the large number of letters that are now being received daily from scores of well known men and women who have been benefited by its use.

Among the large number that have been received recently none are more interesting than the following letter from Dr. J. T. Edwards, of Fayetteville, Ga. Dr. Edwards, it will be remembered, recently gave Tanlac his unqualified endorsement in a public statement, and the testimonial published below was recently given him by one of his patients. His letter follows just as it was written:

Fayetteville, Ga.
Mr. G. F. Willis, Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir:
I am enclosing you herewith statement I have just received from Mr. T. M. McGough. He has sold out here, and is moving to Turin, Ga. He was here this morning, and came in to tell me what Tanlac had done for him. He says too much cannot be said about Tanlac. It certainly has cured him.

Respectfully,

J. T. Edwards, M. D.
Mr. McGough's statement follows:

"I suffered from indigestion and could not eat anything but what would hurt me. Constipation gave me a great deal of trouble also. My symptoms were indigestion, heart burn and gas on the stomach after eating. My appetite was irregular, and my food failed to nourish me. This trouble caused me to get very poor—in fact I got so thin and weak I was hardly able to go about.

I bought three bottles of Dr. Edwards' recommendation, and I am now feeling all right again, and am able to attend to business. I gained seventeen pounds in weight and am doing fine. Tanlac did the work.

I now recommend Tanlac to everyone who is sick like I was, and wishes to take something that will help them."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Cover & Shreve; in Mercedosa by R. B. Field; in Murrayville by M. E. Gilbert; in Waverly by the Wyle Drug Co.—Adv.

SUBSISTENCE BRANCH OF ARMY A SUCCESS

Official War "Material" History Made Public by War Department Indicates Success Won by This Branch of Army—Tremendous Totals Comprised in Army Ration.

Washington — "Soldiers who fought against Spain in 1898 lost in weight on an average of 22 pounds each; the average American soldier at the end of the fighting in 1918 weighed twelve pounds more than he did when the selective service act or his own volition brought him into the army."

Thus the success won by the army's subsistence branch in the great war is epitomized in chapters of the official war "material" history made public today by the war department.

The food problem of an army of 3,700,000 Americans is visualized in the history by considering the force as a single man and the entire war period as one dinner hour. Articles comprised in the army ration assumed these tremendous totals:

Roast beef 800,000,000 pounds; bacon 150,000,000 pounds; flour (bread) 1,000,000,000 pounds; butter 17,500,000; oleomargarine 11,000,000; baked beans 150,000,000 pounds; potatoes 487,000,000 pounds; onions 40,000,000 pounds; corn, beans and peas 150,000,000 cans; tomatoes 190,000,000 cans; prunes, peaches and apples (for desert) 107,000,000 cans; sugar 350,000,000 pounds; coffee 75,000,000 pounds; evaporated milk 200,000,000 cans.

The bill for this "meal" amounted to $27,000,000 to December 1, 1918 the per capita cost having risen from 4 cents in 1897 to 48 in 1918.

At the time of the armistice, American soldiers in France were consuming 9,000,000 pounds of food daily. Moving this stupendous quantity over the 3,000-mile line of communication was the principal obstacle to be overcome. This and necessity for conserving cargo space led directly in the later months to the shipment of dehydrated vegetables to the American expeditionary force.

"The problems were solved only by the assistance of the American food industry," the report says, and while instances were found of food specifications being violated, these are declared to have been very few and in most instances not intentional.

The emergency ration of the American soldier, designed to be used only in cases of extremity, was to consist of 3 cakes of beef, prepared with a bread-compound of ground cooked wheat, each cake weighing 3 ounces; three 1-ounce cakes of chocolate; three fourth ounces fine salt and 1 dram of pepper.

A special ration was designed for the use of invalid soldiers, including patted chicken, dried eggs, puddings, etc.

Importance attached to the supply of fresh coffee for the men is evidenced by the decision to ship the bean in the green form and have it roasted near the front. This led to the invention of portable roasters capable of handling several tons a day.

Noting that tobacco has established its claim to a recognized place in the soldier's life," the report says probably 95 per cent of the American expeditionary force used the weed in one form or another. Monthly shipments averaged 20,000,000 cigars and 425,000,000 cigarettes.

The soldier's sweet tooth was satisfied by a monthly shipment of 300,000 pounds of candy during the early part of the war but this increased, in November, 1918 to 1,373,300 pounds, and in the following month the war department made candy a part of the regulation issue, 1-1/2 pounds being issued to each man each month. A close companion in popularity was chewing gum, more than 3,000,000 packages a month being consumed.

More than half of the Fifth Liberty loan would be required to pay for the clothing and uniform equipment of the American army. One chapter of the report gives a short history of the events which led the government finally to take over the domestic wool clip and to commandeer the output of practically every factory.

Interesting statistics are given of economies effected by changes in design. For instance elimination of lacings and eyelets in trousers saved $17,000,000 and redesigning of the coat cut the cost of these garments $5,000,000. Expert cutting reduced the consumption of cloth 23,100 of a yard and saved 2,300,000 yards on the total order.

Cotton textiles produced for the army would furnish a strip 3 feet wide and of sufficient length to wrap 18 layers around the equator. Innovations resulting from shortages in material included the substitution of American dyes for the German product and the use of vegetable "ivory" in button making.

The activities of the quartermaster corps (afterwards taken over largely by the bureau of purchase, storage and supply), included also the furnishing of hats, shoes, boots, fuel, oil, paints, tools, harness and harness equipment and even music. Prominent composers volunteered for the work of selecting a "balanced ration" of jazz and more restrained orchestration for the army bands.

To give the American aviator the surest fuel possible, the department took over every drop of "25.7 degree fighting naphtha" and confined its use to the service planes actually on the front.

Conservation of shipping space resulted in the revolutionizing of packing methods. Clothing was pressed into bales, shoes shipped in bags and trunks were dissembled and crated. The New York Baling Plant, according to the report, saved the government $55,000,000 in tonnage expenditures.

Middle Aged Women

Women should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, shortness of breath, excessive nervousness, irritability, and the blues—which indicate the approach of the inevitable "Change" that comes to all women nearing middle age. We have published volumes of proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the greatest aid women can have during this trying period.

Read About These Two Women:
Fremont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run-down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."—Mrs. M. Gordon, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never see well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and your Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life."—Mrs. FRANK HESSON, 1316 South Orchard Street, Urbana, Ill.

GRATEFUL FOR HELP GIVEN BY AMERICANS

Work of Greek Commission of American Red Cross, Under Direction of Lieut. Col. Edward Capps, Saved Thousands from Starvation and Exposure.

Kavalla, Macedonia, April 11.—(By Mail)—There are so many Americans in Kavalla, the first city in the Balkans to become a basis for American Red Cross operations, that it has some of the aspects of a real American city. Here the finest tobacco in the world—the bulk of which is consumed in America—is grown. Here the great American tobacco companies have export headquarters.

For years Bulgaria has looked upon Kavalla with a covetous eye. Although defeated and subdued, she looked hopefully to the peace congress at Paris to give her Kavalla, which now has only the shallow port of Dedegatch, at the mouth of the Gulf of Enos, is anxious to get any outlet through Macedonia and the sea for her large output of tobacco, wheat, livestock, silk and quills of roses, and would be quite ready to spend any sum in developing and deepening the harbor.

During the war the Bulgarians adopted in Kavalla the same ruthless practices they followed in all occupied territory. They pillaged and destroyed. They made every effort to make the land uninhabitable. They cut down trees and carried off furniture and everything made of wood. They sacked the homes and drove the Greek inhabitants out. When the Greek commission of the American Red Cross established relief posts here, after the armistice, no section of the Balkans ever presented a more depressing picture of misery and squalor. The Americans found the inhabitants dying by the dozen from famine, exposure and typhus. They established soup kitchens and dispensaries and gave out tens of thousands of American-made garments. They sent physicians, nurses and medical supplies, distributed hundreds of thousands of loaves of bread made of American flour, established shelters for the homeless women and children and cared for the hordes of broken and dispirited Greek and Serbian soldiers who had been released from vile prison camps in Bulgaria.

This work which was under the direction of Lieutenant Colonel Edward Capps, who in peace times is professor of Greek at Princeton University, doubtless resulted in saving thousands of persons who might otherwise have succumbed to starvation and exposure.

The natives speak with unbounded gratitude of the help given them by the Americans. They say the food furnished by the American Red Cross was the first substantial nourishment they had in four years.

DORT

Quality

Goes Clear Through

Touring Car $995 f. o. b. Jacksonville

No matter how impressed you may be with your Dort when you purchase it you have a far higher opinion of the car six months or a year later.

It is when you look back over the daily record of its service for a long period that you completely appreciate the value of your investment.

The finest qualities of the Dort reveal themselves only in actual service. It maintains its even performance and riding comfort.

It registers the same high mileage per gallon of gasoline and quart of oil month after month.

It stays "tuned up" and sweet running. That is why the Dort stands so well with its owners.

HEATED CONTROVERSY THROUGHOUT BOHEMIA

Over Question of Dividing up Great Estates in Section of Czecho-Slovakia — People Demand That Land Be Taken Over by State.

Prague, April 27.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)
—There is a heated controversy throughout Bohemia over the question of dividing up the great estates held by the land owning magnates of this section of Czecho-Slovakia. The great part of the land in Bohemia is in the hands of large land owners and there is a widespread demand that the estates shall be taken over by the state and in some way put in the hands of the poorer classes.

The people are all the more insistent that this action should be taken because the land owners, for the most part, have been open enemies of the Czech Nationalists and have been faithful satellites of the Hapsburg dynasty which oppressed Bohemia for four centuries.

One of the first acts of the new government was to appoint a commission to make recommendations for reform in land owning. The commission now has reported recommending that the great estates should be bought by the state and that no land owners should be allowed to hold more than about 625 acres. The question as to what amount the state should pay these land owners for the land it expropriates in this compulsory fashion has caused serious differences of opinion. All but a few extremists concede that the land should be paid for. President Masaryk favors a generous compensation to the land owners while Premier Kramarz, who has always been identified with the Czech Conservatives, intervenes in behalf of the land owners by insisting that they should be allowed to hold up to 7,500 acres.

It is expected that this question will be settled when Premier Kramarz returns from the peace conference at Paris.

The Catholic Ladies Aid Society will give an entertainment at the K. of C. hall Friday night, May 23, at 8:30. Members and friends invited.

MADE RAID ON POTATO FARM

Be rita, April 14.—A small army of 1,000 organized plunderers recently made a raid upon a huge potato farm not far from Steitn, forced the employees of the farm to help them transport its products to the railroad station and compelled railroad officials to order a special train on which they carried their plunder into Steitn and sold it. The farm owners have appealed to the German general assembly at Weimar to punish the robbers.

AMERICAN FOODSTUFFS IN THE NEAR EAST

American Flour and Fish is Principal Means of Existence of Thousands of Refugees—Red Cross Distributes Food.

Tig Ani, Isle of Samos, Aegean
Sea, April 5.—(By Mail).—No matter at what time port in the Near East one's ship touches he finds American flour and foodstuffs have been unloaded. Here in the ancient home of Phythagoras, the town which once riveled ancient Athens, there are thousands of refugees driven from Asia Minor during the war by the Turks, with American flour and fish from the Turkish coast their principal means of existence.

Duck-like Turkish caiques rush out to the American food ships which anchor here at intervals and unload the flour which is distributed on donkey back into the interior of the island. Both Tig Ani and Vathy, the latter the principal port of the island of Samos, are now well supplied with American staple foods.

American Red Cross representatives, working under the direction of Lieutenant Colonel Henry W. Anderson of Richmond, Va.,
see that the food is equitably distributed. Other Red Cross field workers perform a like service on the island of Nikaria.

The inhabitants of Patmos, Leros and Lipso, Greek islands seized a few years ago by the Italians, hope soon to be reunited to Greece. Leros boasts that its inhabitants are direct descendants of the ancient Greeks. The island has changed little from ancient times and the natives are famous for their classic beauty. The island of Samos receives special consideration in the matter of American food for about 10,000 Greek refugees from Smyrna and Asia Minor, driven out by the Turks, have been living in distress on the island during the war. With their native masticque wines, olives, oranges, nuts, figs, fresh fish and American food the natives of Samos are now faring not so badly.

Many American soldiers of Greek parentage are now visiting the Greek islands after having fought in France. Red Cross girls recently distributing food to refugees were greeted by a group of American soldiers.

"What are you Americans doing in this far-off island?" the girls inquired in astonishment.

"Oh, we've finished up our work along the Rhine," one American Greek said, "and now we've come back to the homes of our fathers."

LONIUS CAPTURES BELMONT HANDICAP

NEW YORK, May 22.—Over a sloppy track on which a drizzling rain fell all the afternoon G. D. Widener's four year old chestnut gelding Lanius, by Llangibby-Southern Bell, won the Metropolitan Handicap at one mile at Belmont Park today. This event was the feature of the Westchester racing association's opening day of the season.

Lanius was an outsider in the betting the favorite being J. E. Widener's Naturalist, but the public choice finished only in fifth place. There were seven starters two of which, Papp and Flags, acted badly before the bunch was sent off.

Flags finished second and Star Master third after a brilliant stretch run. The winner's time was 1:45 2-5 and his owner's share of the cash prize was $3,865.

TOLEDO BOUT SEAT SALE NOW $270,000

TOLEDO, O., May 22.—Seat reservations for the heavyweight championship battle between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey here July 4 have already exceeded $270,000. Tex Rickard, promoter of the contest, announced tonight this tonight upon his return from New York.

The entire gate receipts of the Jeffries-Johnson battle staged by Rickard at Reno drew only a few hundred dollars more than that figure, Rickard said.

With the contest still seven weeks away Rickard was unwilling to hazard a guess at the total receipts, but he said if the seat reservations continued in such unexpected numbers, the battle would draw considerably over $500,000. Rickard received one check today for $11,000 from officials of an automobile company, who purchased tickets for their agents.

Dempsey did his first boxing today, stepping two rounds with Willie Doyle, a lightweight. Representatives of Willard are seriously considering leasing the Casino, a club house a few hundred yards from Dempsey's quarters.

In addition to the open arena, an indoor gymnasium is being built at Dempsey's camp so that he will be able to continue his work in any weather.

Where is the Secret Why
The Light Weight Car Everyone Is Talking About
Does Not Soon Show Wear

The Essex Stays New

The frame of the Essex is as strong as a bridge girder. Road strains do not affect it in the slightest; consequently, the Essex is free from squeaks and rattles.

There is no weaving or twisting of the radiator. The Essex remains rigid and firm under the hardest service. Every wearing part is adjustable as well as being well lubricated. The Essex retains its newness.

Just ask any of the tens of thousands who have ridden in the Essex and who are so enthusiastic in their praise of it to describe how substantially and quietly it rolls over even the roughest roads.

How often motorists, particularly those with light weight cars, have driven miles out of their way to avoid a stretch of bad road, because of the torture to themselves and to the car.

But the Essex is affected by no such abuse. Its spring suspension is unusual and effective. Its construction is so solid that even the roughest cobblestone pavements are passed over with an ease that has created the greatest admiration.

Its friends declare the Essex has no equal in easy riding quality regardless of the size, weight or cost of the car.

When will you take your ride in the Essex?

Any dealer will show you how and why the Essex rides so easily, performs so well and retains its quiet and rigid qualities.

And you will see also a performance of acceleration, speed and power that is comparable only to the highest powered costly cars.

Think how rare these qualities are, even in cars costing much more than the Essex, which in the five-passenger model sells at $1395 f. o. b. Detroit.

WITH THE COLORS

FROM EDWARD K. FULLER

The letter which appears below has been received by Mrs. Lucy B. Grunder from her son, Edward K. Fuller, written from military police headquarters, Ft. Sill, Okla.: Ft. Sill, Okla., 9, 1919.

Dearest Mother:

I just received your card yesterday I notice the handwriting was not yours. I could not figure out who it was from until I read it. I was sorry you were not feeling well enough to write in your usual happy vein. Hope that you have improved ere this. How is everything at home? I got a long letter from Marie. Mailed from Our Savior's hospital. Thought something serious had happened to her. She had been there a short time suffering from an abscess. But from the way she wrote she is at home by this time.

So you are having rainy weather. We are certainly having our share. Today is the first nice day we have had this month. It is cold here. I am sleeping under three blankets. How are the crops? If the farmers throughout the country are successful with their crops this year and next, it surely should put things back to where prices were, before the war. How are the prices on groceries? I would think prices would start dropping.

I was talking to an old Sergeant the other day. He was overseas 14 months, is married and stops in Lawton at night. He has been in the service 28 years. It is awfully hard to understand him. He has been gassed and shell shocked, which caused him to stutter. He was telling me what it cost him to live in town. He went into a butcher shop and bought 5 pounds of bacon and paid $4.25. That is some price. It costs a man more to live here than at home, as this is a new country.

I got a letter from a friend who was discharged last month. He said I did not realize how high everything was, on the outside of the camp. He stepped into a clothing store, and purchased a complete outfit of civilian clothes and had a very small amount of change left. You ask me if I will be out the 1st of June. I hardly think so. They have not sent any men here to fill our places. I read in the Chicago paper that the government was hiring men and sending them to different camps to take the soldiers' places so they could demobilize the regiments. I heard that an order came to discharge every man that enlisted for the duration of the war by the 15th of June. Let's hope there is something to it. Yesterday we got an order for every period of war man to turn in his "name" before retreat.

Well, mother, I have written about all there is as to the likelihood of getting out of the service. I hope this will find you feeling better. Write soon and you said you would send me some papers published at Woodson. Please do not forget to mail some.

Give my love and best regards to all my friends. I remain your loving son.

Edward K. Fuller
Address: Military Police headquarters.

FROM GEORGE SIMPKIN

Mr. and Mrs. George Simpkin of route 2 are in receipt of the following letter from their son, George Simpkin, Jr., who has just landed in this country after a several months' period of overseas service:

May 13, 1919.

Dear Mother and All:

Well, here I am back in the good old U. S. A., safe again once more. I was lucky to get out of the hospital. I left Coblenz on Easter Sunday, April 20, and my company had already left so I then crossed the Rhine river on the street car and took the train to Engers, where I was fortunate enough to get in with the 126th machine gun company, which left in fifteen minutes after I had arrived. So we left there at 6 o'clock that night, six hours after my company had left, and we passed them on the road and arrived at Brest April 23, just before dark, an hour ahead of my company.

Well, I went to bed that night and the next morning I reported back to my company, which was across the road. They were somewhat surprised to see me and wondered where I came from. We stayed there until April 28, the day we started across, and had a slow trip on the F. J. Luckenbach, eighteen days altogether and a very rough trip too. I was sick the first night but O. K. ever since. I am writing this letter on the water but hope to see land this afternoon. We won't get off until tomorrow morning then we will be separated and I guess I will go to Camp Grant. If so it won't be long until I will be home.

I will close now, hoping to beat this letter home if I can but I may not be able to.

Love to all,

George.

From Carl Young.

The letter which is printed below has just been received by Mrs. John Young of Litchberry from her brother, Carl Young, stationed with Co. B, 132nd Engineers, at St. Aignion.

Dear Sister:

April 23, 1919.
I will now answer your letter of March 20, which I received today. I received one from home a few days ago, and this makes the second one for over a month. Well, sis, I am still in the same old place, but I have been transferred twice since I wrote your last time. Am still doing the same kind of work, however. The work over here isn't bad and we get lots of time off (if we are lucky enough).

We get up every morning, when that awful bugle blows at 6 o'clock, walk a quarter of a mile to chow and then we go to work. We get in about 5:30 in the afternoon, then we have to drill a half hour, then go to supper and after supper we have to ourselves. Sunday is always the day for inspection and it takes about all morning to finish that. Then we can get Sunday afternoon off if we are able to pass inspection. If not, work all day. So you see we don't have to work much over here, ha, ha.

When I am transferred I always happen to be placed with someone I know. I don't know where Cowgur is. I haven't seen him for a long time. Frank Stice got over just in time to see some of the fun, didn't he? Yes, I have been where some of the fighting was going on. I saw enough to convince me that it was no playgrounds. I never did tell you anything about it, for if I go started I wouldn't know when to stop so I will wait and tell you when I get home. I know I haven't seen as much as some of the boys, but I have seen enough of this country. I am ready to cross the pond just once more.

I am ready to answer questions now. You ask how much I weigh, but I do not know. I don't think they know what a pair of scales is over here, as I haven't seen any, but I know I am heavier than I was. No, that was not an overseas cap I had on when I had my pictures taken. That was a cap I wear when I am on the truck. We just climb off the truck and hang the pictures taken.

John ought to be here to go fishing. The French people fish all winter long. Our headquarters office is right on the bank of the river but I have never been fishing yet. I don't think we are allowed to. Talk about high water! This river was higher some time ago than it has ever been since 1834, the French people say. Yes, I still have my sewing kit. I couldn't do without it.

You asked where I ate. We eat under a tin shed called a mess hall. Yes, I get all the clippings you send me and am sure glad to read them. Anything from the U. S. A. is a treat to us. You asked what pay was. I get $1.10 a day and pay $6.90 for insurance and .50 for liberty bonds, which leaves me $21.10 a month and every time you open your pocket book it costs you a franc. No I don't do any washing now, I hire it done as long as I have the price. Of course when I go broke I do it myself. You ought to see the way the French women wash. They go down to the river and get a rick and paddle, and beat the dirt out but it is sure hard on the clothes and cotties.

Well, I will have to close now. I don't see how I have written so much. Ping this finds me all as well as usual I am, as ever,

CARL.
